QUALIFICATION A

State Chairman, Socialist Workers Party, a communist subversive organization

STATE OF INDIANA
COUNTY OF LAKE
TO THE GOVERNOR AND STATE ELECTION BOARD OF
STATE OF INDIANA

The undersigned petitioners, each of whom is a duly qualified elector and voter of the State of Indiana, respectfully petition you to place on the ballot to be voted for at the General Election to be held in the State of Indiana on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1968, the names of the following persons for the offices designated as well as the residence of each:

For President of U.S. - Fred Halstead, New York, New York
For Vice-President of U.S. - Paul Boutelle, Newark, New Jersey

For U.S. Senator - Ralph Levitt, 6650 Spring Mill Road, Indianapolis, Indiana 46260

The petitioners nominate for the office of Presidential Elector the following candidates, who are pledged to support the presidential and vice-presidential candidates of Fred Halstead and Paul Boutelle:

Leonard Albert Joyce, 1002 Campeon Street, South Bend, Indiana 46617

Joseph N. Ambrosia, 1011 Notre Dame Ave., South Bend, Indiana 46617

John R. Dodson, 1007 Notre Dame Ave., South Bend, Indiana 46617

Randall C. Pasach, 717 Arthur, South Bend, Indiana 46617

Kenneth Lux, 717 Arthur St., South Bend, Indiana 46617

Daniel Lewis, 1002 Campeon, South Bend, Indiana 46617

Ronald E. Hicks, 1330 W. 32nd St., Indianapolis, Indiana 46224

Marilyn Jane Vogt, 501 Redwood Hill, Bloomington, Indiana 47401

Nancy B. Brand, 222-13 Arnold Drive, West Lafayette, Indiana 47401

Richard Hugh Congress, 1616 E. 54th, Indianapolis, Indiana 46220

Your petitioners further represent and show that the above named are legally qualified to hold the above offices for which they are candidates; that the subscribers and each of them desire and are legally qualified to vote for the above named and they designate the name of the party they, and the Senatorial candidate, the Presidential Electors, and the Presidential and Vice-Presidential candidates represent, as the SOCIALIST WORKER PARTY, and which also represents the principles of said party; that RUSSELL BLOCK OF BLOOMINGTON, INDIANA is Chairman; and Richard Congress of Indianapolis, Indiana is Vice-Chairman; and Robert A. Cantrick of Bloomington, Indiana is Treasurer; and that the party has adopted a platform providing that said party does not advocate any of the doctrines prohibited by Sec. 117 of the Indiana Election Code (being Sec. 29-3812) of Burns Indiana Statutes, and that the device shall be the one herewith attached on this petition by which said party shall be designated on the ballot,

Guide to Subversive Organizations

SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY (See also American Committee for European Workers' Relief)

1. Cited as a subversive and Communist organization which seeks "to alter the form of government of the United States by unconstitutional means."

(Attorney General Tom Clark, letters to Loyalty Review Board, released December 4, 1947 and September 21, 1948.)

2. "A dissident Communist group not affiliated with the Communist International nor officially recognized by either the Communist hierarchy in Moscow or in the Communist Party, U.S.A. Essentially, however, both the official and unofficial groups base themselves upon the teachings of Marx, Engels, and Lenin. The Socialist Workers Party are followers of Leon Trotsky, who was expelled from the Russian Communist Party. The official Communists are followers of Joseph Stalin."

(Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1980 on the Communist Party of the United States as an Advocate of Overthrow of Government by Force and Violence, May 11, 1948, p. 141; also cited in House Report 1694 on Organized Communism in the United States, May 23, 1951, originally released August 19, 1953, pp. 141 and 142.)

QUALIFICATION B

Convicted of disorderly conduct in IU campus demonstrations against Dow Chemical Company, 1967

QUALIFICATION C

Teaching assistant, division of Germanic languages, Department of German, Indiana University

Public Law 90-575 enacted October 16, 1968, would have deprived Mr. Block of any financial assistance from Indiana University had the act for which he was convicted been committed prior to enactment of the law.

October 16, 1968 - 49 - Pub. Law 90-575 82 STAT. 1662

EXTENSION OF INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION ACT OF 1966

Sec. 302. Section 103(a) of the International Education Act of 1966 is amended by striking out "the fiscal year ending June 30, 1969," 20 USC 1176. and inserting in lieu thereof "each of the succeeding fiscal years ending prior to July 1, 1971."

AGE QUOTAS IN YOUTH WORK AND TRAINING PROGRAMS

Sec. 303. Section 124 of the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following: 42 USC 2741.

"(f) In the case of a program under section 123(a)(1), the Director 42 USC 2740. shall not limit the number or percentage of the participants in the program who are fourteen or fifteen years of age."

ELIGIBILITY FOR STUDENT ASSISTANCE

Sec. 304. (a) If an institution of higher education determines, after affording notice and opportunity for hearing to an individual attending, or employed by, such institution, that such individual has been convicted by any court of record of any crime which was committed after the date of enactment of this Act and which involved the use of (or assistance to others in the use of) force, disruption, or the seizure of property under control of any institution of higher education to prevent officials or students in such institution from engaging in their duties or pursuing their studies, and that such crime was of a serious nature and contributed to a substantial disruption of the administration of the institution with respect to which such crime was committed, then the institution which such individual attends, or is employed by, shall deny for a period of two years any further payment to, or for the direct benefit of, such individual under any of the programs specified in subsection (c). If an institution denies an individual assistance under the authority of the preceding sentence of this subsection, then any institution which such individual subsequently attends shall deny for the remainder of the two-year period any further payment to, or for the direct benefit of, such individual under any of the programs specified in subsection (c).

(b) If an institution of higher education determines, after affording notice and opportunity for hearing to an individual attending, or employed by, such institution, that such individual has willfully refused to obey a lawful regulation or order of such institution after the date of enactment of this Act, and that such refusal was of a serious nature and contributed to a substantial disruption of the administration of such institution, then such institution shall deny, for a period of two years, any further payment to, or for the direct benefit of, such individual under any of the programs specified in subsection (c).

(c) The programs referred to in subsections (a) and (b) are as follows:

- (1) The student loan program under title II of the National Defense Education Act of 1958. 20 USC 421-429.
- (2) The educational opportunity grant program under part A of title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965. 20 USC 1061-1069.
- (3) The student loan insurance program under part B of title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965. 20 USC 1071-1086.
- (4) The college work-study program under part C of title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965. 20 USC 1091-1095.
- (5) Any fellowship program carried on under title II, III, or V of the Higher Education Act of 1965 or title IV or VI of the National Defense Education Act of 1958. 20 USC 1091-1095, 1091-1119-1126.
- (d) (1) Nothing in this Act, or any Act amended by this Act, shall be construed to prohibit any institution of higher education from re- 20 USC 461-465, 511-513.

THINK THIS OVER

Thomas Macaulay, the British historian who died on the eve of our Civil War, wrote a warning to America. He predicted the possibility that our country would come under a dictatorship. The alternative which he forecast is no less foreboding. Macaulay wrote "... your republic will be fearfully plundered and laid waste by barbarians in the Twentieth Century as the Roman Empire was in the Fifth, with this difference; that the Huns and Vandals who ravaged the Roman Empire came from WITHOUT and your Huns and Vandals will have been engendered WITHIN your own country, by your own institutions."

Re Bureau letter to Albany dated 5/23/68.

In referenced Bureau letter dated 5/23/68, the Bureau advised that the Indianapolis Office prepare a communication to include the following-detailed information on or before 6/14/68:

1) False Allegations of Police Brutality

Detailed information is desired to counter the wide-spread charges of police brutality that invariably arise following student-police encounters. Included therein should be specific details of the alleged incident, the form of resistance and action taken by police. Incidents of undue provocation and violence used on police should also be set forth under this caption. It is anticipated this data can be used through friendly news media to vividly portray the revolutionary-type actions and militant nature of the New Left movement.

2) Immorality

Specific data should be furnished depicting the scurrilous and depraved nature of many of the characters, activities, habits and living conditions representative of New Left adherents.

3) Action by College Administrators

Set forth information to show the value of college administrators and school officials taking a firm stand in resisting militant minority elements attempting to disrupt or take over college campuses. Specific examples should be given to show the results of being firm, as opposed to a vacillating attitude in considering student demands. Include therein the demands made by the students and the action taken by college officials during and after the insurgence. Advise of the extent of outside influence in the uprising and approximate number of the student body actively participating. Additionally, point out whether and to what extent faculty members rendered aid and encouragement or joined militant radicals in their actions.

After submission of the initial letter by 6/14/68, the above-requested data should be furnished on a continuing basis as it is received by your office. Prompt and thorough reporting of this information is of the utmost importance so that it can be properly utilized in exposing the New Left movement.

Every avenue of possible embarrassment must be vigorously and enthusiastically explored. It cannot be expected that information of this type will be easily obtained, and an imaginative approach by your personnel is imperative to its success. Concentrated counterintelligence efforts must be directed at maneuvering active New Left participants into a defensive position so that their offensive actions are seriously impaired and eventually stifled. A realistic, imaginative, approach is solicited and any ideas designed to foment confusion, disrupt, discredit, or expose the New Left and its adherents should be submitted for consideration.

ReBulet 5/28/68.

It is to be noted relet set forth that SAC Letter 68-30 (E) dated 5/21/68 pointed out the necessity for increased coverage on college campuses to insure the Bureau is in a position to receive advance information of any planned disruptive activities. In order to facilitate the overall supervision of the Counterintelligence Program, as well as to fulfill our intelligence gathering responsibilities, all offices are instructed to provide the following detailed information, in form suitable for dissemination, for each college and/or university in their respective territories where organized New Left groups are in existence or where there have been campus disturbances during the past year. Fifteen copies of each letterhead memorandum should be submitted appropriately captioned, "New Left Activity--- University."

1. Identity of all New Left organizations, a characterization of each and approximate membership;
2. Identity of the ringleaders in each group with detailed background information, including any subversive data and a summary of activities in the New Left movement;

[redacted] peace activist, [redacted] of SDS at IUSBC, [redacted] peace and civil rights activist, [redacted] of SDS at UND and [redacted] Michiana Committee to End the War in Vietnam (MCEWV), and [redacted] of SNCC. There was no attempt to segregate the men and the women and as noted below, [redacted] a white female with an MA degree from St. Mary's College in South Bend, was quite free with her sexual favors. Informant could only surmise on the sleeping arrangements but she felt that there was undoubtedly a great deal of sharing and switching of bed partners.

b7C

On one occasion, informant had learned that while a party was in progress, [redacted] had come out of his room clad only in a towel wrapped around his neck, and nothing else. [redacted] had inquired if any of those present desired to take a bath with him. He had no takers.

b7C

Informant had learned that [redacted] during the Spring of 1968, had been observed in the act of sexual intercourse with a [redacted] a Negro, who was [redacted] of the South Bend Human Relations Commission, in the SBHRC office in the South Bend City Hall. [redacted] was nude. The act occurred during the evening hours and a meeting of the SBHRC was scheduled for that evening in the SBHRC office. [redacted] was admonished by [redacted] SBHRC, for the possibility of embarrassing the SBHRC. However, later [redacted] was observed parked in front of the Commune all night on different occasions while [redacted] was still living at the Commune.

b6

b7C

[redacted] has now departed for Los Angeles, California. She plans to move into a commune there where there will be six couples living. The living arrangements there will be share and share alike. One of the men there will have first call on her sexual favors, but she will be passed around among the other men on a regular schedule. If one of the other men feels indisposed, then she will be available to whoever arrives at her bed first. This same arrangement will apply to the other five women at this commune.

IP 105-5821

[redacted] after he moved out of the Commune, [redacted]. He lived there for a period of time with a [redacted] a sophomore at St. Mary's College. Again, informant could only surmise concerning the sleeping arrangements but inasmuch as they were the only two inhabitants of the house, felt it reasonable to assume that they shared the same bed.

b7C

At [redacted] there lived a [redacted] a UND student, [redacted] (LNU), a UND student, and [redacted] (LNU), girl friend of [redacted]. Informant had been told by [redacted] a New Left adherent, who lived at [redacted] that [redacted] and [redacted] were sleeping together. Pot parties have been held at [redacted] house frequently. [redacted] also shoots heroin and one occasion they held an opium party with a [redacted] (LNU), a draft dodger from Los Angeles. All of the individuals mentioned above, could be considered to belong to the New Left. [redacted] suspects [redacted] of drugging her cat with either pot or heroin. [redacted] has been recently advised that [redacted] but she has not received the money as yet.

b6

b6

[redacted] and [redacted] now married, prior to their marriage had shared the same apartment at [redacted]. Both individuals are of the New Left.

KING's [redacted] had occasion to attend a function at UND. [redacted] observed [redacted] at this function and commented [redacted] could "smell" him even though not overly close to him.

b6

[redacted] a convicted draft dodger, could be said to be from the New Left. Recently, retired Agent [redacted] advised that a doctor from northern Illinois had engaged him to make some background investigation of [redacted], who was a junior at UND had come home after the end of the 1967-68 school year and had announced to his father that he was a homosexual and that he "was in love with [redacted]."

The April, 1968 Bloomington, Indiana telephone directory lists a person by the name of [redacted] residing at [redacted]. In view of the above, it appears that [redacted] could be studying at IU for an advanced degree and not enrolled in any student academic courses during the 1967-68 academic year.

The newspaper or magazine known as "The Alternative," was not known at IU by sources of this office during the 1967-68 academic year. It is possible that this could have been a "house organ" of some fraternity, dormitory, or department. There certainly is no indication that such a magazine was instrumental "in throwing an entrenched SDS out of student government."

b7C

This matter will be borne in mind by the agents covering the New Left at IU and will be utilized as deemed advisable in the coming academic year. It appears at this time that no further action will be taken concerning [redacted]. The above information is being made a matter of record for background and identification and Indianapolis recommendations in this matter have already been forwarded to the Bureau by separate communication.

Note carefully, however; whose rights were violated?
Who lost an opportunity for job interviews? The answer is obvious - the silent conservative majority ! Who won?
This answer is also obvious - the enemies of our country !

This was not bad enough ! Last semester [redacted] and [redacted] showed their true colors by announcing the CEWV sponsorship of a series of lectures on "Socialism" and "The Communist Manifesto." These lectures were given, in part, at I.U. by a formerly [redacted]

[redacted]. This former I.U. student is now publicly known as [redacted]

[redacted] is on the Attorney General's List and the YSA is the youth organization of the SWP.

NEED WE SAY MORE? The obvious conclusion is to join the CEWV at I.U. is to support an organization deemed subversive by the Attorney General !

Don't be duped by the name of ~~the name of~~ "The Committee to End the War in Viet Nam." Don't be taken in by it's alleged cause ! We all want an end to this war, any war, all wars. These people are not really trying to end this war or any other war. They are smart enough to realize that such disruptive efforts have no real bearing on any policy making government decisions.

Ask yourself, then, what could be their true purpose? Could it perhaps be that they want the use of your name and your body for unwitting support of the Young Socialist Alliance and the Socialist Workers Party?

Ask them how many of them belong to and/or support the YSA and the SWP. It is surely worth your time and your effort to inquire deeply into any organization or cause before you join or offer support. They cannot stand such inquiry if it gets too deep.

The suggestions set forth in relet have merit. From the article submitted with relet, it appears that the New Left may very well attempt to carry out a program of disruption at the University of Notre Dame.

Prior to authorizing any action under this program, however, Indianapolis should submit its observations concerning the situation at Notre Dame along with recommendations for counterintelligence action to neutralize the New Left at that school.

Previous Bureau communications advised of the necessity of taking immediate action to expose, disrupt, and otherwise neutralize the activities of the New Left. As a part of this program, you were instructed to remain alert for and to seek specific data depicting the depraved nature and moral looseness of the New Left. You were further instructed to consider ways to use this material in a vigorous and enthusiastic approach to neutralizing them.

Despite these instructions and in the face of mounting evidence of their moral depravity, little evidence has reached the Bureau to indicate field offices are using this information to best advantage.

To make this program more effective in this regard, each office is instructed to be particularly alert for this type of data. Where a student is arrested during a demonstration or his participation in a demonstration is accompanied by the use of or engagement in an obscene display, this information is to be promptly incorporated into an anonymous letter which can be directed to his parents. Where a photograph or other evidence is available to substantiate information in the letter, it should be made a part of the mailing. 12 Arrested In Narcotics Crackdown

By LARRY INCOLLINGO

H-T Staff Writer

City police Monday and today arrested eleven persons in connection with narcotics activities in the city, and federal narcotics agents arrested one juvenile.

The crackdown was the culmination of months of investigation by city, county, state and federal officers. It was timed to coincide with similar raids at West Lafayette and Indianapolis where at least a dozen students at Purdue and Butler Universities also were arrested.

Maj. Russell Parks, chief of city detectives, described the narcotics apprehensions as "controlled arrests." He explained Circuit Court warrants had been issued only after purchases of marijuana and other illegal drugs had been made and purchased materials had been laboratory tested.

Arrests began about 5 p.m. Monday and continued through the night and this morning. At least three more warrants are expected to be served today.

Conviction under Indiana narcotics statutes can carry a minimum five-year prison sentence.

Failed Monday night and held under $5,000 bond after their arrests here were:

Donald Beggs, 20, 4235 Talwood Lane, Toledo, Ohio, arrested at 5 p.m. at 819 N. Grant St., charged with possession and sale of marijuana Sept. 28.

Dale Thomas Sophia, 21, 1617 Kensington

Ave. Flint, Michigan, arrested at 5 p.m. at 819 N. Grant St., charged with possession and sale of marijuana Nov. 8.

Michael Guy Satterfield, 18, 1012 8th St. Columbus, Ind., arrested at 5:40 p.m. at 5th and Dunn Sts., charged with possession and sale of marijuana Sept. 23.

Michael Edwin Hannah, 22, 90 Althea St. Battle Creek, Michigan, arrested at 6:50 p.m. at 5th and Dunn Sts., charged with possession and sale of marijuana Nov. 13. Hannah also was charged with carrying a concealed weapon when city police found a switch-blade knife on him at the time of his apprehension.

Danny Albert Byers, 26, 103 E. Vermilya, arrested at 11:40 p.m. at the police station, charged with possession and dispensing marijuana Sept. 24.

Raymond Lee McConn, 22, 5241 E. 10th St. (alias Raymond McDonald) Indianapolis, arrested at 7:50 p.m. at 423 S. Fess St., charged with possession and sale of marijuana Oct. 11. He was released on bond at 9:15 a.m. today.

Lionel Hillson French, 23, whose address police listed as the 400 block of N. Rogers St., arrested at 6:14 p.m. at 5th and Dunn Sts., charged with possession and sale of marijuana Oct. 16.

Michael David Terrell, 19, 916 E. Grimes Lane, arrested at 8:10 p.m. at 3600 Morning-side Drive, charged with possession and dispensing of marijuana Nov. 7.

McConn, a senior in education; Hannah, a freshman and Sophiea, a senior in music, are students at Indiana University.

Federal agents described the arrests as the breaking up of what they said was a narcotics peddling ring which had been busy on the IU, Butler and Purdue campuses.

City police meanwhile said they have yet to uncover any evidence of a narcotics syndicate in Bloomington.

U.S. Attorney K. Edwin Applegate said at Indianapolis the arrests in connection with the IU and Butler case involved the alleged sale of LSD, marijuana and amphetamines. A federal search warrant has been issued to search the premises of 314 N. Dunn St. "where we have reason to believe the manufacture of LSD is taking place," he said. Federal authorities today would not comment on the success or failure of the search. (Col. 4, Back Page, This Sec.)

12 Arrested In Major Narcotics Crackdown

Applegate said a federal grand jury is now in session and "if investigation warrants, will ask for fugitive warrants for any persons not located Monday and today. Three remain at large and are being sought by police.

Applegate authorized the three federal warrants in Bloomington. The remainder were issued in Circuit Court.

The U.S. attorney said there would be 15 to 20 arrests in Bloomington and about 40 in the state. He said some earlier arrests had been made on the fringes of the operations so peddlers of narcotics would not suspect a larger investigation.

"They would have been suspicious if no arrests had been made," said Applegate, "but we didn't want to make any arrests which would hamper the overall investigation."

He noted that federal agents have been working here since February. There was no particular incident which led them to Bloomington other than the belief that marijuana traffic had grown to the point that warranted placing agents in the city, said Applegate.

At this time, he said there was no reason to believe the arrests in Bloomington and other two cities have any connection other than the fact that some of the persons involved knew each other.

Federal agents grew long hair and beards and posed as college students.

The 10 adults and one juvenile arrested were picked up by city detectives Lt. Robert Branam, Gary Clendenning, Lt. Tom Simes, and Joe Grissom, uniform Capt. Boyd Rife and Cpl. Richard Post.

Police narcotics arrests include 3 I.U. students

At least nine persons, three of them I.U. students, were arrested late yesterday in a city-wide narcotics raid, and authoritative sources said that warrants had been issued for 15 persons in one of the largest narcotics crackdowns Bloomington has seen.

The raids began at about 5 p.m. yesterday with the arrest of Donald E. Beggs, 20, whom police described as an "itinerant musician," and Dale Thomas Sophica, 21, an I.U. senior in music. Both were arrested at a house at 819 N. Grant, and both were charged with possession and sale of marijuana.

Sophica was senator from Willkie II last year and the Progressive Reform Party's vice presidential candidate in last spring's student body elections.

OTHER I.U. STUDENTS arrested include Michael Edwin Hannah, 22, a freshman from Bloomington; and Raymond L. McConn, 22, Indianapolis, a senior in education. Hannah was arrested, along with Michael Satterfield, 18, Columbus, unemployed; and Lionel H. French, 23, address unknown, at 5th and Dunn between 6 and 7 p.m. All were arrested on sale and possession of marijuana, and Hannah was also charged with carrying a concealed weapon. Police said Hannah had in his possession a switchblade knife.

McConn was arrested at his home at 423 S. Hess at 7:30 p.m.

French's occupation was listed as "taxi driver," and another person arrested, Michael D. Terrell, 19, 916-E Grimes, listed his occupation as "stock boy" for a local drug store.

Terrell and a 17-year-old boy were arrested on the city's far eastside. The boy was reportedly a local high school pupil. Another juvenile, a 16-year-old boy, was arrested on a federal warrant charging him with the possession and sale of amphetamines.

AUTHORITATIVE SOURCES said 11 arrests were to be made on the basis of warrants for violation of state laws, and another four warrants were reportedly issued on federal charges. Bond for the seven adults arrested by 10:30 p.m. was set at $5,000 each.

City police detectives, state police and federal narcotics agents cooperated in making the arrests.

Violation of narcotic statutes, under Indiana law, is a felony and jail bond is set on the basis of $1,000 per year of minimum sentence, if the defendant is found guilty. The $5,000 bond set for those arrested in yesterday's raid would indicate that the defendants face a minimum five-year sentence if convicted.

Twelve youths, including two juveniles, were arrested by Bloomington police last night and early today in the biggest drug crackdown in the area in the past year.

All told, federal and local police arrested 20 persons Monday night and today in Indianapolis and Bloomington.

Police said the arrests climaxed eight months of investigation and undercover activity by federal narcotics agents, state police and Bloomington and Indianapolis police.

Other warrants still pending, indicate at least a half-dozen more arrests will be made.

In the last major crackdown on drug use here, 16 persons, some of them Indiana University students, were arrested in the fall of 1967.

Most were charged with possession and/or sale of marijuana, those are the charges with which most of those arrested in the current crackdown are confronted.

Those arrested last night and today were:

Michael Gay Satterfield, 18, Columbus, charged with possession and sale of marijuana.

Lionel H. French, 23, North Rogers Street, possession and sale of marijuana.

Dale Thomas Sophiea, 21, Flint, Mich., possession and sale of marijuana.

Donald E. G. Beggs, 20, Toledo, Ohio, possession and sale of marijuana.

Michael Edwin Hannah, 22, Battle Creek, Mich., possession and sale of marijuana and carrying a concealed weapon.

Raymond Lee McConn, 22, 5241 E. 10th St., possession and sale of marijuana.

Michael David Terrell, 19, 916 E. Grimes Lane, possession and dispensing of marijuana.

Danny Albert Byers, 22, 103 E. Vermilya St., possession and dispensing of marijuana.

Kevin Scott Craig, 18, 610 E. Cottage Grove, possession and dispensing of marijuana.

Dennis E. Strain, 19, 2222 E. Fifth St., possession and sale of dangerous drugs and possession and dispensing of marijuana.

Federal warrants also were out for three Indianapolis men indicted earlier. One, William A. Kirby, already was an inmate of the federal prison at Marion, Ill.

U.S. Atty. K. Edwin Applegate said the arrests involved alleged sales and possession of marijuana and amphetamines.

Federal agents arrested five Indianapolis men, Darrell L. Mann, 23; Paul Ogle, 23; Nathan Cole, 18; Richard Messick, 18, and Larry A. Parrish, 23.

Messick's apartment was raided Monday night. State charges of being common drug addicts and violating the 1935 Narcotics Act were filed against Lee Von Hauger, Ill. 27, and Robert J. Blow, 33, both of Indianapolis. Marianne T. Brewbaker, 26, Indianapolis, was charged with disorderly conduct.

Two juveniles were also arrested

with the group but charges against them were dropped by the county prosecutor's office this morning. Both, however, could be charged later as juvenile offenders.

Arraignment for those arrested was scheduled for today but by noon only two — Beggs and Sophiea — had appeared in court.

Their bond, $5,000 each as was set for all defendants, was reduced to $2,000 at the request of their attorney.

Major Russell Parks, head of the police department's detective division, said chemical or microscopic analysis of suspected drugs obtained was made preceding arrests or issuance of warrants.

One of the juveniles, though not charged by local authorities, was taken to Indianapolis today and may face federal charges there involving the possession of amphetamine drugs (pep pills).

Maj. Parks denied that any drug ring was involved. He said the roundup involved only individual arrests.

U.S. Attorney K. Edwin Applegate of Bloomington said narcotics agents grew beards and long hair and mingled with Bloomington's hippie set to obtain evidence obtained in the arrests.

Applegate said a federal grand jury is now in session and, if their investigation warrants, will ask for fugitive warrants for persons not located Monday or yesterday. Three remain at large and are being sought by police.

The attorney said there would be 15 to 20 arrests in Bloomington and about 40 in the state.

MAJ. RUSSELL PARKS, chief of city detectives, described the narcotics apprehensions as controlled arrests. He explained Circuit Court warrants had been issued only after purchases of marijuana and other illegal drugs had been made and purchased materials had been laboratory tested.

He said some earlier arrests had been made on the fringes of the operations so peddlers of narcotics would not suspect a larger investigation.

Arraignment for those arrested was scheduled for yesterday but by noon only four — Beggs, Sophiea, Terrell and McConn — have been bonded. Bond was reduced to $2,000 for Beggs and Sophiea.

JAILED MONDAY NIGHT and held under $5,000 bond were:

Donald Beggs, 20, 4235 Talwood Lane, Toledo, Ohio, arrested at 5 p.m. at 819 N. Grant street, charged with possession and sale of marijuana Sept. 28.

Dale Thomas Sophiea, senior, 21, 1617 Kensington Ave., Flint, Michigan, arrested at 5 p.m. at 819 N. Grant St., charged with possession and sale of marijuana on Nov. 8.

Michael Guy Satterfield, 18, 1012 8th St., Columbus, Ind., arrested at 5:40 p.m. at 5th and Dunn streets, charged with possession and sale of marijuana on Sept. 23.

Michael Edwin Hannah, freshman, 22, 90 Althea St., Battle Creek, Mich., arrested at 6:50 p.m. at 5th and Dunn streets, charged with possession and sale of marijuana on Nov. 13. Hannah was also charged with carrying a concealed weapon when city police found a switch-blade knife on him at the time of his apprehension.

DANNY ALBERT BYERS, 26, 103 East Vermilya, arrested at 11:40 p.m. at the police station, charged with possession of and dispensing marijuana on Sept. 24.

Raymond Lee McConn (alias Raymond McDonald), senior, 22, 5241 East 10th St., Indianapolis, arrested at 7:50 p.m. at 423 S. Fess St., charged with possession and sale of marijuana on Oct. 11. He was released on bond at 9:15 yesterday.

Lionel Hillson French, 23, whose address was listed as the 400 block of N. Rogers St., arrested at 6:14 p.m. at 5th and Dunn streets, charged with possession and sale of marijuana on Oct. 16.

Michael David Terrell, 19, 916 East Grimes Lane, arrested at 8:10 p.m. at 3600 Morning-side Drive, charged with possession and dispensing of marijuana on Nov. 7.

KEVIN SCOTT CRAIG, 18, 610 East Cottage Grove Ave., arrested at 12:04 a.m. yesterday at that address, charged with possession and sale of marijuana on Nov. 9.

Dennis Strain, 19, 709 West 6th St., arrested at 9:51 a.m. yesterday at the RCA plant, charged in two separate warrants with possession of and dispensing marijuana on Sept. 24, and possession and sale of dangerous drugs on Oct. 13.

Persons still being sought by police in widespread narcotics crackdown

By JEANNENE SEEGER

Daily Student Staff Writer

Local police officials said yesterday there is still an "undetermined" number of persons to be arrested in the crackdown on the widespread use of drugs in Indiana.

The crackdown is a culmination of months of investigation by city, county, state, and federal officers. It was timed to coincide with similar raids at West Lafayette and Indianapolis where at least a dozen students at Purdue and Butler Universities were also arrested.

FEDERAL AGENTS DESCRIBED the arrests as the break up of a narcotics peddling ring which had been busy on the I.U., Butler and Purdue campuses.

City police said they have not yet uncovered any evidence of a narcotics syndicate in Bloomington.

Police said federal agents had posed as "hippies" to infiltrate student haunts at Indiana and Butler Universities.

"These are mostly drug party attenders and small scale sellers," said Asst. U.S. Attorney David Casterline.

"This is not one big ring," Casterline said. "This is a continuing investigation and we're still after the main sources of supply. The cases mostly involve marijuana and amphetamines," he said.

U.S. ATTORNEY K. Edwin Applegate said at Indianapolis the arrests in connection with the I.U. and Butler case involved the alleged sale of LSD, marijuana and amphetamines. A federal search warrant has been issued to search the premises of 314 N. Dunn street, "where we have reason to believe the manufacture of LSD is taking place," he said.

Federal authorities yesterday refused comment on the success or failure of the search.

7 More Sought As 19 Arrested In University Drug Ring Raids

By RICK JOHNSON

Seven persons still were being sought last night on Federal warrants while 19 other persons faced Federal and state narcotics charges in connection with a dope ring police said operated on the campuses of Indiana and Butler universities.

Seven of the persons arrested on Federal charges appeared before U.S. Commissioner Robert W. Geddes yesterday for hearings.

Six of the defendants were released without bond and one youth was freed after he posted $1,000 bond.

Bloomington police arrested 13 persons early yesterday and Monday night. Three of the suspects arrested in Bloomington identified themselves as I.U. students and three others are high school pupils.

All except two juvenile defendants in Bloomington were held on $5,000 bond each, awaiting arraignment in Monroe Circuit Court.

Arrested yesterday in Indianapolis on Federal narcotics charges were:

Darrell A. Mann, 23 years old, 1005 North LaSalle Street, charged with possession and sale of amphetamines.

James H. Judy, 34, 517 East 17th Street, charged with possession and sale of amphetamines.

Paul A. Lee, 20, 5925 Guilford Avenue, charged with possession and sale of marijuana.

Robert N. Cole, 18, 137 West Market Street, charged with possession and sale of marijuana.

Richard E. Messick, 17, 2444 North Meridian Street, charged with possession and sale of amphetamines.

Larry A. Parrish, 25, 2220 North Kentwood Avenue, charged with possession and sale of amphetamines.

Thomas Muser, 16, R.R. 3, Bloomington, charged with possession and sale of amphetamines. Muser also was arrested Monday by Federal agents in Bloomington.

ARRESTED by the Bloomington police on state charges were:

Michael G. Satterfield, 18, Columbus, Ind., charged with possession and sale of marijuana. He said he was an unemployed model.

Lionel H. French, 23, Bloomington, charged with possession and sale of marijuana. He said he drove a taxi.

Dale T. Sophia, 21, identified as an I.U. student, also held on marijuana charges.

Donald E. Beggs, 20, Toledo, Ohio, also held on marijuana charges. He said he is an unemployed musician.

William Terman, 17, Bloomington, held on charges of possession and sale of marijuana. Federal agents said Terman also will file Federal charges for possession and sale of marijuana.

Michael E. Hannah, 22, Battle Creek, Mich., arrested on marijuana charges and a switchblade knife.

Hannah was arrested on a narcotics charge last September when police caught him and five other persons with an estimated 600 pounds of green marijuana.

Hannah is an I.U. student.

Raymond L. McConn, 22, Indianapolis, an I.U. student, arrested for possession and sale of marijuana.

Michael D. Terrell, 19, Bloomington, arrested for possession and sale of amphetamines.

Daniel Byers, 26, Bloomington, arrested on marijuana charges.

Kevin Craig, 18, a Bloomington high school pupil, charged with possession and sale of amphetamines.

Dennis Strain, 19, Bloomington, charged with possession and sale of dangerous drugs and possession and sale of marijuana.

Larry Lushbaugh, 20, Bloomington, possession and sale of marijuana.

The arrests resulted from an eight-month investigation by Federal, state and local police agencies and involved the sale of LSD, marijuana and amphetamines, United States Attorney K. Edwin Applegate said.

AGENTS WERE able to infiltrate the dope racket by posing as college students and hippies with long hair and beards and frequenting the student haunts in Indianapolis and Bloomington to determine the source of the drugs, Applegate said.

In yesterday's appearance before Geddes, only Richard

E. Messick was required to post a bond. The other defendants were released on their promise to appear for a hearing next Monday afternoon.

Assistant U.S. Attorney David Casterline recommended that the defendants be released on their own recognizance.

In Federal complaints read to each of the defendants in the commissioner's hearing, it was revealed that Mann allegedly sold 300 amphetamine tablets to a Federal narcotics agent on July 15.

Judy was alleged to have sold 300 amphetamines to a Federal agent on August 16.

Ogle was alleged to have sold a Federal agent 1.63 grams of marijuana on Oct. 10.

Cole was alleged to have sold an agent 57.6 grams of marijuana on Oct. 11.

MESSICK WAS charged with selling 14 amphetamine tablets to an agent on Nov. 20.

Parrish was alleged to have sold an agent amphetamines last February.

Muser was charged with the sale of 25 amphetamines to a Federal narcotic agent on Oct. 7.

Casterline said yesterday that the Federal complaints on all of the defendants who have not been arrested will be presented to the grand jury as soon as time allows.

If they don't surrender on the warrants and they are indicted, they will become fugitives, Casterline said.

Police hunt continues in narcotics arrests

By JEANNENE SEEGER

Daily Student Staff Writer

Assistant U.S. Attorney David Casterline said yesterday there were eight federal warrants on narcotics violation charges still outstanding, which means these persons are at large.

He said a total of 11 federal arrests have been made, and all have had bond set.

Casterline said the two most recent arrests were William Terman, 17, a University School student, and John Gary Barnett, 19, of Indianapolis. Both were arrested and charged with federal narcotics violations, he said.

BOTH APPEARED before the U.S. Commissioner Robert Geddes today. Casterline said Terman was released to the custody of his father, and Barnett was held on $1,000 bond, he said.

Eight of the 13 charged with narcotics offenses Monday received a reduction in bonds yesterday morning in Monroe Circuit Court.

Receiving bond reductions from $5,000 to $2,000 were Mike Hannah, freshman, 22, Battle Creek, Mich.; Danny Albert Byers, 26, 103 E. Vermilya; Kevin Craig, 18, 611 N. Fess; Mike Satterfield, 18, Columbus; Dennis Strain, 19, 709 W. 6th St.; and Lionel French, 23, N. Rogers St.

Yesterday Donald Beggs and Dale Thomas, Sophia, senior, appeared in court, and their bond of $5,000 each was reduced to $2,000 at the request of their attorney.

CITY POLICE detectives yesterday at ternoon arrested another man on a Circuit Court warrant in connection with the crackdown. Larry N. Lushbaugh, 29, 750 S. Walker, was arrested at his home shortly after 1 p.m. and charged with sale and possession of marijuana Nov. 13.

Judge Pro Tem Thomas McDonald lowered the bond of Lushbaugh to $1,000 because he had definite local ties.

Lushbaugh was the 12th adult arrested in a 24-hour crackdown, which also included the arrest of two juvenile boys by city cause he had definite local ties.

The arrests began at 5 p.m. Monday and city police detectives said yesterday that an "undetermined" number of warrants are still to be written out in the crackdown.

THE ARRESTS here were the result of months of investigation and undercover work by city, state and federal law enforcement officers and coincided with a series of arrests in Lafayette and Indianapolis, where a number of Purdue and Butler University students were arrested.

Casterline said yesterday that federal agents are still seeking one Bloomington resident on a "John Doe" warrant, issued under that name when officers were unable to obtain the person's real name.

Local officials suspect some persons of using an off-campus house here for brewing the compound LSD, a federal agent revealed yesterday.

News of the alleged operation came at the time of the 14th arrest in connection with the dispensing, sale, and use of drugs in Bloomington.

K. Edwin Applegate, U.S. District Attorney, said arrests in Bloomington are expected to total 15 to 20, while those in the state will reach about 40.

Three Still Being Sought On Drug Warrants Here

Three Bloomington persons are wanted and still at-large under Monroe Circuit Court and federal warrants charging them with violation of drug and narcotic laws, and federal agents today arrested two more Indianapolis persons in connection with a narcotics crackdown which began Monday.

Thus far, 13 Bloomington persons have been arrested in the crackdown and 12 of the 13 have been released, either on bond or to the custody of their parents. Two were released to the custody of their parents, two on $5,000 bond, eight on $2,000 bond and one on $1,000 bond. Kevin Craig, 18, 610 E. Cottage Grove, being held in lieu of $2,000 bond, remains the only person in jail arrested in Bloomington in the crackdown.

Of the three Bloomington persons being sought, one faces a federal "John Doe" warrant and two are wanted on Monroe Circuit Court warrants.

The two federal arrests were made early this morning at Indianapolis, where a 17-year-old boy was charged with the sale of LSD Oct. 9, and Howard Chapman, 28, Indianapolis, was charged with the sale of marijuana Sept. 19. The two are expected to appear today before U.S. Commissioner Robert W. Geddes for a bond hearing.

Assistant U.S. Attorney David Casterline said 11 of 17 federal warrants issued in connection with the crackdown have been served, leaving six persons yet to be arrested on a federal level.

Of an alleged LSD manufacturing plant at 314 N. Dunn in Bloomington, Casterline said, "The agents chose not to exercise this search warrant," but added, "we are still definitely very interested in this place."

Narcotics crackdown to continue on campus

Robert E. Mulholland, assistant director of safety, said last night safety division would continue the crackdown on narcotics violations on the campus.

He said authorities would always go after the suppliers, and there are many stories going around about gigantic suppliers who are supplying smaller suppliers. He said safety had found there are different individuals bringing in supplies of drugs from different locations, and if they find a person with a supply the penalty would be more severe to them than on those who are users.

Assistant U.S. District Attorney David Casterline said yesterday that two additional arrests had been made in connection with the state-wide narcotics crackdown which was initiated Tuesday.

Arrests made.

Arrested were John C. Clayton, 17, Indianapolis, and Howard Chapman, 30, Indianapolis. Clayton was taken into custody on a charge of sale of LSD and released to the custody of his father after a preliminary hearing before Commissioner James Clinman.

Chapman was arrested on a charge of sale of marijuana and released on his own recognizance.

Casterline said that 11 of the 17 warrants issued have now been executed.

Nine of the 13 young men arrested early this week for possession and sale or distribution of marijuana will appear before Monroe County Circuit Court Judge Nat U. Hill today to enter their pleas.

The young men were arrested Monday and Tuesday as the result of about eight months of state-wide investigation by city, state and federal law officers. Arrests were also made in Indianapolis and at Purdue University in Lafayette.

Pleas scheduled.

These scheduled to enter pleas include:

Dennis E. Strain, 19, 2222 E. Fifth Street; Kevin Scott Craig, 18, 610 E. Cottage Grove; Michael David Terrell, 19, 916 Grimes Lane; Raymond Lee McGonn, 22, 5241 E. Tenth Street; Lionel H. French, 23, North Rogers Street; Dale Thomas, Sophiea, 21, Flint, Mich.; Donald E. G. Beggs, 20, Toledo, Ohio; Michael Guy Satterfield, 18, Columbus; and Larry Lushbaugh, 20, 750 S. Walker Street. All ten are charged with possession and selling or dispensing marijuana.

Bond reduced.

Bond was originally set at $5,000 for each of the young men, but was reduced to $2,000 for most of them Wednesday in Circuit Court. Lushbaugh received a bond reduction to $1,000 because he has definite local ties. Terrell was released on $5,000 bond Tuesday, before the bond reductions occurred. All the young men have been released on bond except Kevin S. Craig.

Another of the young men arrested for possession and sale of marijuana this week, Michael Edwin Hannah, 22, of Battle Creek, Mich., is presently involved in court action as a result of previous arrest for possession of marijuana.

Hannah and three other people were arrested by county police on Sept. 4 for possession of marijuana when police found about 700 pounds of the plant hanging from the rafters of a carport roof.

Hannah's attorney appeared before Monroe County Superior Court Judge Donald Rogers seeking a dismissal of the case. Judge Rogers denied the dismissal.

Hannah will face future court action for the first arrest. He will enter his plea for the second arrest on Dec. 19.

Danny Albert Byers, 22, 103 Vermilya Street, waived arraignment, pleaded innocent and requested a jury trial in circuit court Wednesday.

The YSA, youth group of the Socialist Workers Party, did not want a large membership. Their chairman, organizer and "behind the scenes" manipulator, [redacted] prefers a small organized and dedicated group. We are preparing a separate issue on this group.

Since no one organization had mass backing last semester, the big thing was coalition. All of the New Left organizations tried to get together to get a big thing going. The most popular controversy seemed to be recruitment on the campus.

In October the SDS and CEWV vented their spleen against a government recruiter and the CEWV tried to stir up trouble by joining the National Week of Solidarity - both fizzled.

b7C

As a last desperate attempt, in December they all joined together and went after the CIA recruiter. About 50 shouted to "sit-in" Ballantine Hall, but only about a dozen stayed. When their insults, bad manners and filth failed to deter the recruiter, they became petulant. Their bearded faculty leader, [redacted] led them into the Faculty Lounge at night. The next morning other faculty members were appalled at the filth and destruction caused by this handful of dissidents to the lounge. Our dean berated them, only to be deluged with insults.

Finally, in a childish temper tantrum, they gathered in front of the recruiting room and threw a bottle of acid into the room, damaging the door and the floor. Then, like fugitives from decency, they fled. The CIA discontinued the interviews and left I.U. to keep from embroiling the campus in strife and turmoil. The real losers were the legitimate students who were seeking employment.

The leftist agitators proved nothing and changed no policies. They caused disruption only for the sake of disruption. Must we continue to allow them to violate the rights of others?

They have now held their national conventions over the holidays and will return with renewed vigor to try to reorganize here this semester.

WATCH FOR THEM! JUDGE FOR YOURSELF! DON'T BE DUPED!

"DON'T LET THE NEW LEFT WIN THE ARMAGEDDON AT I.U."

Non-Student Heads Campaign For Revolutionary Party

One of the candidates who has been working overtime to win the presidency April 17 of the Indiana University student body is Russell Lloyd Block, a relative newcomer to the IU campus political scene.

Block, of 207 E. 2nd St., and North White Plains, New York, was fined a dollar and costs in City Court for his part in the DOW campus demonstrations last year after his appeal of a disorderly conduct charge was turned down by Monroe Circuit Judge Nat U. Hill.

Block has been making his pitch from within a party which carries the label Revolutionary Students Party (RSP) which was initiated by the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA), an organization long reputed to be the student arm of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP).

In the 1968 Indiana General

Election, Block, in a petition to the governor and state election board to place certain SWP candidates for the offices of U.S. president, vice president, and senator on the ballot, was listed as state chairman of SWP.

His vice chairman at the time was one Richard Congress of Indianapolis. The name of the treasurer of the party which also appeared on the petition was that of Robert A. Cantrick, then of Bloomington, but now in his home state of New York.

Apparently the pace of campaigning and studying has been overtaking the RSP candidate and Congress, who is known to his close associates as Rick, moved in to lend a helping hand. He, if not officially, is at least unofficially acting as chairman of RSP.

On the surface this would appear quite proper. However,

When the IU Student Registry cannot show a record of his enrollment as a student at the university it does not appear that RSP is entirely a student party.

The name Congress does nonetheless appear in the registry; a Mrs. Richard Congress enrolled in IU of Indianapolis.

In a front page story of the Indiana Daily Student, March 25, Congress was quoted as saying, "The formation of the party (RSP) was rather hasty — one week."

The actual formation took place the night before at a meeting of about 30 students in Room 006 of Ballantine Hall on campus.

Still quoting from the Daily Student, Congress was reported as saying at that meeting, "It is important to mobilize students around concrete demands and that these issues challenge authority."

The writer of the article, Nikki Peck, noted that Congress said the U.S. functions as an exploitive capitalistic society with a ruling corporate elite which preserves its economic position by carrying on the Vietnam war and oppressing groups such as blacks and Mexican Americans.

"Basically the university is a product of this type society," he is quoted as saying.

His appraisal of the importance of student government is in direct contrast to that of President Ted Najam who has been more than a mere passing influence in the relative peace on the IU campus during the past year.

"The whole idea of running this campaign," Congress is quoted as saying, "is not that student government is any great post, it's rather impotent; but you can talk to people.

They're receptive to ideas. You can explain to people who's doing what to whom."

The ideas which RSP hopes will be receptive include among others:

- all regulations concerning student life should be made and enforced by students.

- defense of the Indianapolis Black Panther Party against police attack.

- open the books of the IU Foundation.

- no recruiters allowed on campus who refuse to debate in public.

- 500 black students on full scholarship next semester; 500 more the following semester.

- support for the anti-war movement to bring the troops home from Vietnam now.

These issues are not uncommon to the American people and their political leaders. What is uncommon, however, is that an outsider, a non-student, is allowed to conduct a campus political campaign on any issue.

The purpose of Congress' presence can only be guessed at. But Block has not remained completely silent, and perhaps he has given the most transparent reason for his campaign manager's unorthodox campus activity.

In an earlier edition of the Daily Student, Block was reported as saying, the socialists (not his RSP) advocate the overthrow of capitalism, substituting a system of national social control of wealth and planned economy. "Some kind of change will come about sooner or later," he is quoted as saying. "It's a matter of how, when, and how much suffering there will be. We tried to bring change about as soon as possible, with as little bloodshed as possible."

The insidious question arises as to the ultimate purpose of Block, Congress, et al. Is the Revolutionary Student Party attempting to win political power on campus or is it in fact the Socialist Workers Party.

On page 152 of the Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications, also known as the 87th Congress Second Session House Document 398, also more commonly known as "the Attorney General's List," the Socialist Workers Party was cited as a subversive communist organization which seeks, "to alter the form of government of the U.S. by unconstitutional means."

The source of this citation was Attorney General Tom Clark, in letters to the Loyalty Review Board released Dec. 4, 1947, and again on Sept. 21, 1948.

A second citation was issued May 11, 1948 by the Committee on UnAmerican Activities. The organization was cited as, "A dissident communist group not affiliated with the Communist International nor officially recognized by either the Communist Hierarchy in Moscow or in the Communist Party in the USA. Essentially, however, both the official and unofficial groups base themselves upon the teachings of Marx, Engels, and Lenin. The Socialist Worker Party are followers of Leon Trotsky, who was expelled from the Russian party. The official communists are followers of Joseph Stalin."

The years 1947 and 1948 seem eons in the past. However, a telegram from the Internal Security Division, Department of Justice, dated this past March 28, reads,

"The Socialist Workers Party is considered a subversive organization by the Department of Justice and is still on the attorney general's list."

Again, are Block and Company promoting the Revolutionary Student Party of the Socialist Workers Party?

Here's another quote from Block which appeared in the student published Armageddon News, March 14, 1969:

"We do want to do away with the present economic system and replace it with a better one. The Young Socialist Alliance is committed to work for a system in which the people control their own lives in a meaningful way and receive the benefits of a planned economy, and in which factions are not permitted to amass large amounts of property or wealth. If this is complete destruction of our form of government, then we are for it."

State, I.U. failures crucial*Student leader names possible fall issues*By NANCY BADANES
Daily Student Staff Writer

Cancellation of the black studies program, failure of Whitcomb to produce 500 jobs this summer, failure of I.U. to produce adequate funds for scholarships, and failure of the Faculty Council to approve the new student Conduct code as presented to the Faculty in May will all be issues this fall, said Dean Hartley, grad.

"Whether by design or by accident" all combined, he said, "these issues will affect every student, I think more so than this past May."

HARTLEY HAS been a senator for student government and is presently a summer senator. He is president of Blue Key and past co-editor of the Literary magazine The Ballantonian. Having been through two springs of turbulence and demonstrations and watching students become committed he feels that a repetition of student protests will occur this fall.

It will be different though said Hartley, "There will be more committed students." He said, students will be united all the time instead of off and on, because the issues are going to affect students needing jobs, black students, student scholars, ships, and many other interest groups on campus. "If there are only a few hundred from each group that is enough to activate the student body as a whole."

HARTLEY EXPLAINED the main issues that will confront students this fall: 1) The promised jobs have not materialized said Hartley. Either they involve too much red tape or they last only a few weeks. 2) Students are finding out now that scholarships and financial aids have been cut back. 3) The Student Conduct Code as presented in May was not approved. Faculty decided that students already had enough protection with the previous code. 4) Most importantly, the Black Studies Program is now in Limbo. Black authors, playwrights, and historians who were going to come to speak as part of the program have now refused to come because of the administration's handling of the lock-in.

Hartley said he thought that, "people will be surprised" by the student reaction which will show in the October elections.

In September we will start right off with demonstrations — but rallies will be run under a different procedure," said Hartley. "It will be a repetition of May only better organized and lasting the whole year."

Student Predicts Disorder

Indiana University student senator Dean Hartley predicted Friday night that there will be a renewal of campus disorders this fall, lasting until spring.

"Student disorders, mainly at Indiana and Purdue Universities this past spring, were mostly over tuition increases. However, Hartley, who served temporarily as student senate president last year, said the issues will be greater in number this fall.

"It will be a repeat of May, only better organized and lasting the whole year," he said.

Hartley said students were promised jobs in state government that haven't materialized. He said students are finding that there are cutbacks in scholarships and other student aids. He also said a black studies program at I.U., scheduled for this fall, is now "in limbo."

Hartley, currently attending summer school, is a graduate student and an ex-officio senator by virtue as president of the Blue Key, senior men's honorary.

and Indianapolis letter to the Bureau, 5/20/69.

In referenced Indianapolis letter to the Bureau, 5/20/69, it was pointed out that since the current semester was about to end and little activity was expected during the summer session, the Indianapolis Division is making the following recommendations concerning Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana, in relation to the Cointelpro:

No further issues of "Armageddon News" are being recommended at this time. It is felt that the appropriate audience and the need is insufficient at this time. If any of the New Left organizations give indications of reorganizing in the fall of 1969 further recommendations will be made concerning the "Armageddon News" at that time.

It was further pointed out that the New Left situation will be followed closely through appropriate sources and the Bureau will be advised if it is felt that this program should be reinstated at Indiana University.

At this time contacts have been made with [redacted] of Indiana University relative to the possible disruptive situation at Indiana University this fall. During the coming fall semester at Indiana University the New Left situation will be followed closely and appropriate recommendations will be made as to what necessary action be used at that time. If it is felt that the captioned program should be reinstated at Indiana University the Bureau will be advised.

Obfuscating the issue

To the Editor:

It is obvious that the person who wrote the March 23 editorial on swastikas neither knew anything about the Middle East conflict nor even saw the poster.

The Zionist writers who sought to defend the action in their letters to the editor, it seems, were also trying to obfuscate the central issue by playing on westerner's sympathies and guilt by complexes over the issue, just as the state of Israel plays psychological blackmail with Germany, a generation removed from the horrendous conflagration.

One should take into account these charges made of genocide and other nationalistic perversions. The statement of one of the letter writers, "my people have tasted genocide and we shall never taste it again" is typical of their scatterbrained pandering to blind, incendiary "Vaterland" rhetoric which flies in the face of reality. The fact is that the majority of the world's Jewry do not live in Palestine and do not intend to ever live there.

The fact is that since 1948, Israel has been fighting a defensive war of survival which has seen her territory expanded to several times its original size, encompassing thousands of people of Arabic extraction. And it is the Israeli's who expropriate and destroy Arab property and communities and discriminate against and restrict the rights of the captive Palestinian masses under the name of an all "Jewish" state.

It should also be noted that within occupied

Palestine, Arabic and anti-Zionist Jews are given less than adequate treatment. Use of "emergency laws" similar to "banning" in South Africa and denounced by Zionist spokesmen as "illiberal" during the British period of rule, are now applied against political dissidents and Arabs.

The Zionists seek to justify what can only be a rank denial of freedom of expression by casting religious and national overtones over the incident, but do not address the political issue nor suffer a moment's remorse for their act.

They attempt to persuade us that world Jewry is attached to the state of Israel, which it is not. In light of this, let me again state that the act of ripping the poster on display at the Arab students' table by some Zionists was in direct defiance of those students' right of expression and has no justification whatever.

Writer traces history of Arab fascism, Al-Fatah

IKK NAHEM

Jewish Liberation Front

Now that the issue of Nazism in relation to the history of the Middle East crises has been brought up by the Arab students, I for one am glad. Contrary to Arab claims, the Zionist organizations on campus (and I belong to all of them) have never presented on our table literature identifying the Arab people with the

'As I See It' essay.

Nazis. But now that the issue has been brought up, let us look at the facts, not drawings on posters reflecting Arab value judgments, but the facts.

Arabs welcomed Fascists

It is a fact that during World War II, Arab leaders welcomed fascist invasion and declared their support for the Axis Powers. From 1941 on, operating from a special office in Berlin, Haj Amin el-Husseini (former Arab Grand Mufti) was engaged in arousing Moslem support for the fascist war machine. This covered many fronts: directing propaganda and espionage activities in Arab countries, organizing the Moslems into units called "Black Legions", which were responsible for the worst atrocities perpetrated against Tito's partisans, and pro-Nazi activities in Greece, Java, India, Africa, and Indonesia. The Mufti was a personal friend and confidant of Adolf Eichmann. He asked Gestapo Chief Heinrich Himmler to provide him, after the war, with a "special advisor" from Eichmann's department to solve the Jewish question in the same way it had been done in the European countries.

I wish that it could be said that this is a thing of the past and today the Arab countries have "progressive leanings", but once again they have "progressive leanings", but once again let us look at the facts. The number of German and Austrian Nazis who work directly for the Egyptian government is estimated at several hundred. Nasser has selected ex-SS men, ex-Gestapo officers, ex-members of the S.A., former Nazi scientists, and members of Hitler's propaganda ministry for his personal bodyguard, his concentration camps, and his secret police. Here is a partial list of Nazis in the employ of Nasser:

1. Erich Alten—former head of the Jewish Department of the Gestapo.
2. SS-Obersturmbannführer, Bernard Bender—heads political dept. of the Egyptian Secret Police.
3. SS-Brigadeführer Oscar Dirlewanger—wanted as war criminal, responsible for the annihilation of every man, woman, and child in the town of Borki, Poland.
4. Dr. Hans Eisler—notorious doctor of Buchenwald Concentration Camp. Wanted by West Germany for trial but Egypt has refused extradition.
5. Leopold Gleim—Organizer of the Egyptian Secret Police.
6. Alois Moser—Wanted by Russians as a War Criminal. Advisor on anti-Israeli activities in Egyptian Intelligence.

Arab terrorists are Marxists

Even this is not enough, since most "progressive Arabs" oppose the fascist regimes in the Arab countries, instead identifying with Arab guerrilla organizations such as Al-Fatah. Upon examination, these so-called "revolutionary Marxist organizations fighting a war of national liberation", prove to be nothing more than fascist bandits. They are in reality a disgrace to the noble word guerrilla. At most they are no-terrorists, blowing up schools with children in them, along with airplanes full of innocent civilians. Al-Fatah's efforts have also included appeals to individual Nazis in Europe in order to solicit their assistance. Some of these are:

1. Karl Van de Put, a Belgian and a Nazi who served in the Africa Corps in World War II and now resides at 839 Chausse de Haecht, Bruxelles. He recruits European youth with military background for service in Al-Fatah.

2. Johann M. Schuller, former Nazi officer, residing at 21, Via Nemea, Rome. He has for the past year been selling arms to Al-Fatah, and a few months ago began recruiting other Nazi officers as instructors in Al-Assifa training camps.

Along with this, it should be noted that Yasir Arafat, leader of Al-Fatah, was an ex-leader of the notoriously reactionary Muslim Brotherhood League.

The whole situation becomes almost ludicrous when one hears Arab claims that Al-Fatah stands for the construction of a harmonious bi-national state where Arabs and Jews can live side by side in peace. An Al-Fatah pamphlet entitled "Researches and Experiments in Revolution — The Liberation of Conquered Countries and the Struggle against Imperialism" (pp. 14-15) explains how this "bi-national state" is to be brought about:

Extinction of a society

"The liberation action is not only the wiping out of an imperialist base but, what is more important, the extinction of a society (Infrad-mutam). Therefore armed violence will necessarily assume diverse forms in addition to the liquidation of the armed forces of the Zionist occupying state, namely: it should turn to the destruction of the factors sustaining the Zionist society in all their forms: industrial, agricultural, and financial. The armed violence necessarily should also aim at the destruction of the various military, political, economic, financial, and intellectual institutions of the Zionist occupation state, to prevent any possibility of a re-emergence of a new Zionist society. Military defeat is not the sole goal in the Palestinian Liberation War, but it is the blotting of the Zionist character of the occupied land, be it human or social. The Jewish State is an aberrant mistaken phenomenon in our nation's history and therefore there is no alternative to wiping out the existential trace (Alathar Alwjudi) of this artificial phenomenon."

Another final solution

It is interesting to note that the very people and movements that Al-Fatah say they are emulating reject their brand of genocide. A true revolutionary and heroic guerrilla fighter by the name of Fidel Castro has said, "Revolutionaries should never threaten an entire country with extinction." He added that the Jewish state had a right to exist and that he had therefore refused to break off relations with Israel. The representative of North Vietnam in Paris, Tran Dinh Dung, has been no less explicit. He said, "The Government of North Vietnam acknowledges the right of the existence of the State of Israel and the necessity of peace in the Middle East, based on the right of self-determination of all peoples in the region."

Supreme value: existence

I would say taking all these things into consideration, it is not so far-fetched to understand why Israel is mobilized for the preservation of her people. After the death camps we are faced with one supreme value: existence. The Arab countries and the Arab guerrilla organizations represent genocide. The Jewish people have tasted genocide in the past all too often, we shall never taste it again.

Each of the Pro-Arab letters in Wednesday's Daily Student talked of their extreme desire to open up meaningful dialogue with Jewish students. This is all well and fine, but one thing should be made clear: The existence of the State of Israel as a Jewish State is NON-NEGOTIABLE. If you can accept this, we can then work everything else out. If not we will continue to defend our existence by any means necessary.

Authors Note: The word "Zionism" has been misused enough this year, at this point I would like to define it. Zionism is the national liberation movement of the Jewish People in our struggle for self-determination in our own homeland, Israel.

Condemns 'vigilante' act

To the Editor:

The March 23 issue of The Daily Student carried three Letters to the Editor and an editorial on the recent dispute between the Zionists and the Arabs—all of which were distortions based on either ignorance or purposeful falsification.

Rather than argue the political dispute in a political manner, the authors of these articles feel more comfortable to place the argument on the plane of religion. But a poster which serves to compare fascism with Zionism is a political poster (I don't think the analogy is correct, but nevertheless it is still political). And when Zionist thugs tear up such a poster, they are displaying their politics in a physical manner. Now, where—if you will permit me to inquire—does religion enter the picture?

"... putting a swastika... on the 'same piece of paper as the Star of David is hideous to me!" screams Mme. Shapiro.

"A Star of David... with a swastika inside (sic) it." This is the ultimate insult and obscenity to my religion," murmurs Messr. Nahem.

"... the Arab student leaders... have chosen to display offensive and intolerable anti-religious material at their table," spouts Messr. Diamond.

Meanwhile, The Daily Student Editorial contents itself with uttering banal phrases about the abhorrence of the swastika!

But let us brush aside these babblers and discuss the issue in question.

I am a socialist. Everyday I have to listen to professorial dilettantes slander socialism while, at the same time, painting pretty roses on capitalism. Now, do I have the right to "tear up" (read: shoot) these professors? Let us take another example: on page 5 of the March 23 Daily Student appears an article titled "Lenin 'deified' for birthday"—and the epigone who wrote this tells us about the idiocy of "Communism". Needless to say, the whole article serves only to slander communism. Now, do I have a right to bomb The Daily Student because they insulted my beliefs?

"... but I will not passively let swastikas be raised at I.U.," sings Messr. Nahem in harmony with the other political Hamlets.

Allow me to comment: the Zionists sell literature at their table which equates the leaders of Fatah with fascism. Now, can I tear up your literature, Messrs. the Zionists? After all, that is the logic of your 'argument'.

"I didn't say that!" sputter these philistines.

But let us leave them to their sweet-sounding phrases. We want only to state our support for the right of free speech and our irreconcilability with Zionism.

Arab-Israeli conflict

To the Editor:

The controversy touched off by the recent poster incident at the Organization of Arab Students literature table in Ballantine Hall has taken a most peculiar and discomfoting turn. The letters and editorial which have been published so far (IDS, March 23) are highly revealing about both sides involved, not to mention certain individuals in the administration of I.U. and editors of the IDS.

The Arab students responded to this illegal act by appealing to Dr. Herb Smith and by writing a letter of protest to the Daily Student. They have thus shown, by word and deed, that it is their intention to go through all legitimate channels to obtain, exercise and defend their freedom to present their point of view. They have sought to focus on the central issue raised by the incident: whether or not they shall be free of obnoxious and insupportable harassment in saying what they feel.

The same cannot be said for Nahem, Shapiro, Smith, Rabbi Diamond and the writer of that IDS editorial. One would have expected each of them to deplore this act, at the very least, and in the case of the dean to take steps to hinder its repetition. Having done that, no one could reproach any of them for expressing any other views they might have on the subject — e.g. whether or not the comparison of the Zionist state to Nazi Germany is in fact accurate (a crucial question in this case!) or whether a swastika on the Israeli flag is an affront to the Jew or the Zionist.

Is the tearing up of the poster to be condemned or is it not? By supporting the act, campus authority and press give encouragement to vigilante justice they claim to disavow, namely "irrationally prevalent in the use of swastikas" (see same editorial).

The Arab students have exhibited exemplary conduct throughout the whole affair. The sole comment which they have so far been allowed in the campus press should be carefully re-read by everyone (IDS March 20, p. 4).

Re Bulet, 3/16/70

It is noted that referenced Bulet advised IP that captioned program should not be discontinued within this Division. It is also noted that the Bureau has recently advised that the investigation of matters in the New Left field be intensified, and that this Division is presently attempting to intensify its efforts in this category.

It is recommended that positive counter intelligence programs be initiated in regards to the New left and captioned program along with available manpower and investigative programs in the near future.

A review of this fiel by the writer reflects that the IP Division published Armagedon, a newsletter type publication to lessen the effects of the New Left at Bloomington, Ind., with success. This type program and a program of concetrated interview of persons associated with the New Left are possibly areas of counterintelligence.

Positive suggestions and recommendations to be forthcoming in regards to this program.

There has been no adequate situations arising in the Indianapolis Division to which an appropriate counter-intelligence program could be applied in this matter. There has been little if no activity on College campuses in Indiana due to inactivity of same during the summer months.

It is suggested that Agents working on New Left matters hold a conference in September to determine if possible extent of activities foreseeable on major college campuses in the State and that a positive counterintelligence program be formulated to offset these activities

On November 18, 1970, this Division held a Security Agent Conference. One of the items was the discussion and feasibility of various programs of counter-intelligence on Indiana's College Campuses. For those Agents receiving copies of this memorandum, COINTELPRO is a Bureau wide program designed to lessen the effect of Radical "New Left" student groups on campuses. Any such program to be initiated within the I Division has to be approved by the Bureau. One of the effective methods in the past has been the circulization of printed material pointing out discrepancies in philosophies of various organizations to the student body or to legitimate student groups.

Any counter-intelligence program should be devised so as to insure there is no way that it can be traced back to this Bureau.

Copies of this communication are being designated to Agents involved with Security investigations on college campuses where NEW LEFT activity appears to be flourishing. Agents receiving copies are requested to send suggestions for programs of counterintelligence to SA BRANDT.

Keith Parker Will Return To U.S. Dec. 23

By JOHN FANCHER
H-T Civic Affairs Editor

Keith Parker is expected to return to Indiana Dec. 23 from his controversial trip to Hanoi.

The Indiana University Student Body President left the United States for North Vietnam Nov. 30 with an invitation extended by the National Student Association and National Student Congress.

Parker's trip has raised questions in the minds of some students, but the Student Senate, after lengthy debate, decided not to conduct a referendum on the matter.

However, the Senate did indicate professionals may be asked to conduct a survey among students to determine feeling about Parker's trip.

Joseph (Jot) Kendall said today Parker is expected back in Indiana Dec. 23, but he isn't sure whether the Student Body President will come to Bloomington or remain in Indianapolis at his parents' home for the Christmas-New Year's vacation.

Efforts were made to raise private funds for Parker's trip to North Vietnam, but these were not successful and the young man went on borrowed money.

Kendall is a member of a committee established for the fund-raising effort.

Parker and other student body presidents in the nation, plus two student newspaper editors, were invited to go to Vietnam as a "student-to-student" peace project. The governments of North and South Vietnam were not involved other than being asked to give permission for entry into the respective areas. Entry into South Vietnam was denied Parker, who is a field lieutenant in the Black Panther Party.

In Vietnam, Parker hoped to learn the feelings of North Vietnamese students and others toward peace. He also hoped to learn about treatment of prisoners of war.

Parker was to have sent communications to Bloomington about the trip, but apparently was unsuccessful because Kendall said the only correspondence received was from Moscow prior to the student president's entry into North Vietnam.

In addition to a debate of Parker's trip in the student Senate, a leaflet was distributed recently by "Concerned Students at IU."

The leaflet was scathing with statements such as:

"Parker will no doubt provide us all with the answers to the elusive search for peace.

Parker, representing all IU students (all 8%) and his associates have indicated that they will solve the problems trained negotiators cannot.

"While acknowledging that Parker's travel to Hanoi was not paid for by students funds, who will repay the loan made to Parker by a local communal leader for the trip?

"Who will pay the expenses for Parker on projected speaking tours away from IU while he represents us?

"What type of liberated curriculum does IU have that permits a student to travel extensively, unsponsored, with no apparent academic worry?"

COUNTERINTELLIGENCE PROGRAM
NEW LEFT

Since the distribution of a counterintelligence leaflet concerning KEITH PARKER and his trip to North Viet Nam; and the association of the SMC and the Student Government; numerous articles have been published at Bloomington criticizing PARKER. One such article specifically mentions the leaflet and PARKER referred to the Concerned I.U. Students in his speech at I.U. following his return from N. Viet Nam.

One of the significant occurrences was the decision of the IU Board of Trustees to abolish the student fee. This was one of the topics dealt with in the leaflet, which was anonymously mailed to the Board of Trustees.

In order to evaluate the possible effects of the leaflet mailed anonymously, a current review of KEITH PARKER's file IP (100 157-2130) and related file IP (105-6589) is being conducted and the Bureau will be advised of results.

Trustees Abolish IU Student 'Fee'

By JOHN FANCHER
H-T Civic Affairs Editor

Freedom to hear all lawful viewpoints on the Indiana University campus became an issue this morning when the IU Board of Trustees abolished the 50-cent mandatory student government fee.

The hassle developed when some trustees indicated displeasure with student government fees being used to help finance controversial activities such as the San Francisco Mime Troupe, Bobby Seale Weekend and the Liberation Movement Weekend.

IU President Joseph Sutton declared:

"It is the purpose of this university to hear every point of view.

"We run an open university. There are no fences around this place.

"We can come here and say what we please. If there is a violation of the law, the police can enforce it."

Despite Sutton's appeal, IU Trustee John Widaman was successful in having passed a resolution to discontinue the mandatory 50-cent fee charged each student each semester for support of the student government budget.

There will be no such fee charged, starting with the 1971-72 school year.

IU Trustee Carl Gray cited his displeasure with $750 being spent from the Student Government budget for the controversial San Francisco Mime Troupe, $350 for the Liberation Movement Weekend and some unannounced sum for the Bobby Seale Weekend.

IU Trustee Don Lash suggested the university ought "to chuck" the left and give the students "the best in this land."

"Don, I'd run a mile for you," but I won't buy that," declared IU President Joseph Sutton, whose leave of absence was officially terminated by the board this morning prior to the hassel over freedom.

"We want them (students) to hear the extremes. I'm talking about Black Panthers and whoever else.

"When students are exposed to extremes, they tend to become moderate.

"There are those of us who have dealt with thousands of students.

"I've never met a fool. I've met some dumb ones," said the president.

Becoming even stronger in his support of university freedom, Sutton declared:

"I must lay it on the line now.

"As long as they (speakers) are within the law, they have a right to be here.

"As long as I'm president that will be the policy of this administration!"

When the Widaman resolution came up for vote, IU Trustee Harriett Inskeep was the only one seen raising her hand in opposition.

Those who favored the resolution pointed out they did not feel students should be compelled to support activities with which they do not agree.

The abolition of student government fees applies only to the Bloomington campus where the administration is directed to scrutinize all extra-curricular activities of the campus and recommend means whereby the most significant and meaningful programs can be continued.

Carter displeased with FBI

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP) — Byrum Carter, vice president for the Indiana University Vice President Bloomington campus, was dean of the School of Arts and Sciences at the time. He said he was displeased with disclosures the FBI distributed phony right-wing newsletters on the Bloomington campus in the late 1960s.

According to just revealed documents, the FBI published sporadically and distributed a newsletter called "Armageddon News" in 1968. An attempt to discredit the antiwar movement on the IU campus, it was part of the FBI's counterintelligence operation against the New Left.

"There was a publication which was published off campus," Carter said. "I don't know anything about the people putting them out, except they were opposed to the antiwar movement." He said he would be less concerned of the FBI influence if the agency had not tried to hide its role.

The SDS finally tried to elect officers in November, but could not get a full slate. [redacted] was elected Head Coordinator, even though he had already withdrawn from I.U. as a student. For lack of officers, they elected [redacted] and [redacted] to a Steering Committee.

The CEWV did better though. [redacted] was elected chairman. Other committee chairmen elected were [redacted] and [redacted].

Even the CEWV, however, could not draw a large membership. Students are now becoming aware that the war is only a gimmick to gain support for the aims and programs of the YSA.

The YSA, youth group of the Socialist Workers Party, doesn't want a large membership. Its chairman, organizer, and "behind the scenes" manipulator, [redacted] prefers a small, organized and dedicated group. We are preparing a separate issue on this group.

In October, the SDS and CEWV vented their spleen against a Government recruiter and the CEWV tried to stir up trouble by joining the National Week of Solidarity - both fizzled.

As a last desperate attempt in December they all joined together and went after the CIA recruiter. About 50 shouted to "sit-in" Ballantine Hall, but only about a dozen stayed. When their insults, bad manners, and filth failed to deter the recruiter, they became petulant. Their bearded faculty leaders, Professor [redacted] led them into the Faculty Lounge at night. The next morning, other faculty members were appalled at the filth and destruction caused by this handful of dissidents. Our Dean berated them, only to be deluged with insults.

Finally, in a childish temper tantrum, they gathered in front of the recruiting room and threw a bottle of acid into the room, damaging the door and the floor. Then, like fugitives from decency, they fled. The CIA discontinued the interviews and left I.U. to keep from embroiling the campus in strife and turmoil. The real losers were the conscientious students who were seeking employment.

These agitators proved nothing and changed no policies. They caused disruption only for the sake of disruption. Must we continue to allow them to violate the rights of others?

They have now held their national conventions over the holidays and will return with renewed vigor to try to reorganize here this semester.

WATCH FOR THEM! JUDGE FOR YOURSELF! DON'T BE DUPED!

"DON'T LET THE NEW LEFT WIN THE ARMAGEDDON AT I.U."

The FBI Armageddon newsletter

Armageddon, according to Webster's Third New International unabridged dictionary, means: a widespread annihilating war; a vast conflict that is marked by great slaughter and widespread destruction and that is usually so decisive as to make further renewed conflict impossible.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation circulated an anonymous newsletter entitled Armageddon around Bloomington in the 1960s. Reprinted here is the March 7, 1969 issue of this newsletter.

This newsletter was part of a 12 point plan by the FBI to disrupt political and social comment and demonstration in Bloomington. The names have been deleted from the letter in order to not drag the unwilling persons through the bureau's mud.

Parker Called Undeserving Of Major FBI Effort

To the Editor of The News: check the voting records, you'll see what percentage of students even took the time to vote. Even less took any interest in student government. Your article glorifies and martyrs someone worthy of neither. One thing it does, it demonstrates to someone who was there at IU the stupidity of the FBI. I worked every day to discredit him and did a better job than the FBI.

As editor of the black students' newspaper, and member of the executive council of the Afro-American Student Association, I preached against Keith Parker primarily because he was not his own man, he was controlled by radical whites. The whites are the ones who should have been watched.

To think that the FBI would spend so much money and time on Keith is incredible.

As for the abolition of the fifty-cent fee for student government, Keith's election had nothing to do with it. If you'll

Editor's Note: The copy right story referred to was not meant to glorify or martyr Keith Parker. It was a report on the FBI activities at Indiana University, all of which were verified. The FBI did take some credit for abolition of the 50-cent fee for student government as was reported.

Parker Not Surprised By FBI Leaflet

By MAYER MALONEY JR.

© 1975, The Indianapolis News

Keith S. Parker, former Indiana University student body president, expressed no surprise today when informed of FBI activities to discredit him and his student government.

"I remember it clearly, but I thought it was other students on campus. I didn't think the FBI needed to do that, but I guess I should have known better," Parker said.

Now a medical student at the University of Minnesota, Parker was contacted by The News at his St. Paul home.

He said he recalled when the pamphlet, "The Parker Cop Out or, more aptly, No More Bull," was distributed on the Bloomington campus and the effect it had.

"My parents received a copy of it and it was rather upsetting to them because they never had problems in dealing with my ideas, plus they had never received hate mail before," Parker said.

"It made them become very concerned for my welfare."

However, Parker said he didn't think the leaflet appreciably weakened his position as a student leader.

"Possibly it affected some students who were still naive enough to think the Nixon administration was working in their interest. To those students who didn't think for themselves, it probably weakened our position."

"That's not important anyway. What is important is that it was an organized program to defame people who dared to think differently, to ask questions, to incite others to think on their own," Parker said.

The former Black Panther party member said he and his friends knew things were happening to them that didn't happen to most students.

"I had all kinds of things happen. The windshield of my car was shot out, my mail was opened and my friends harassed," he said.

Keith Stephen Parker

"No one would have believed me then if I pointed a finger. It is important now for people to see the things we were talking about then were true."

Parker said FBI harassment didn't stop when he left the Bloomington campus.

"Every place I've moved in Minnesota, the FBI has called the landlord. Before I taught in the Afro-American studies department at the university here, the FBI called the department."

Referring to the newsletter "Armageddon" the FBI has admitted distributing on the I.U. campus, Parker said he thought it, and the pamphlet, were done by a group of conservative students on the I.U. campus.

Parker said he was with his former student body vice president, Mike King, two weeks ago. King, formerly of Hammond, is in graduate school at Yale University.

"We talked a lot, did a little fishing. We see each other every year," Parker said.

Parker is a graduate of Shortridge High School. His parents have since moved to Detroit.

I.U. Student Leader Made FBI Target

By WENDELL TROGDON

© 1975, The Indianapolis News

The Indianapolis FBI office led a secret campaign to discredit the Indiana University student body president in 1970-71 after authorization from Washington.

Documents obtained by The News reveal the targets of the FBI were Keith Stephen Parker and the I.U. campus chapter of the Student Mobilization Committee.

In a memorandum to Washington reviewing the case in 1971, Indianapolis FBI office said it had drawn up a leaflet devised to take advantage of adverse feelings on the I.U. campus regarding the trip to North Vietnam taken by Parker.

The leaflet, that memo said, was aimed at lessening any effects of the SMC on campus and to discredit the United Student Movement which controls the student government at I.U.

According to that and other memos the suggestion for the leaflet was first made by the Indianapolis FBI office and then approved by the director's office in Washington.

The memos are included in information released to the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence regarding what the FBI called its COINTELPRO-New Left operation. COINTELPRO is believed to have been short for Counter-Intelligence Program.

James Martin, special agent in charge of the FBI office here, said, "I think the authenticity is clear, and I don't think you need my confirmation. It obviously is material turned over to the Senate committee at its request. Martin's comments were to the Associated Press. Martin came to Indianapolis after 1971."

It was reported last month that part of the COINTELPRO operation included distribution of an FBI-drafted newsletter titled "Armageddon" on the Bloomington campus. The leaflet was geared to counter anti-Vietnam War efforts by students.

Parker, who was from Indianapolis, was student body president at IU during the stormy antiwar era in 1970 and 1971. He entered the University of Minnesota Medical School after graduation.

A memorandum sent to Washington Dec. 8, 1970, by the Indianapolis FBI office referred to a letter dated July 9, 1970. The December memo said Parker was a field lieutenant of the Black Panther party and had been elected president of the IU student body along with Mike King of the United Student Movement.

It continued: "Parker, as president of the student body, is in a position to represent himself as the elected student leader and to use student government funds to further New Left ideas along with Black Panther party ideology."

Indianapolis feels strongly that this is an excellent time for the bureau to capitalize on feelings that Parker is not serving the student body.

but is furthering his own gains. It is also felt that this is an excellent time to begin a program to disenchant students toward any of the USM, Student Mobilization Committee, or Young Socialist Alliance movements on the campus.

That memorandum mentioned an enclosure prepared with the idea to lessen Parker's influence on the campus and to lessen present or future effects of the SMC.

It said: "If the bureau approves the distribution of the enclosed handout, it would be mailed anonymously in packets of 25-50 to legitimate student organizations, fraternities, sororities, etc., to insure that the bureau as source will be protected fully."

The Indianapolis division feels also that it is imperative that if the handout is to be effective, it should appear on the Indiana University campus close to the expected time of Parker's return (from North Vietnam).

Due to the appropriate time of this particular situation, the bureau is not being requested to reprint the enclosure. It is suggested that the Indianapolis office Xerox 500 copies for distribution using commercial paper of various colors. The cost of such would be nominal.

The suggested "handout" prepared by Indianapolis raised the questions: Who approved Parker's trip? The student body who he supposedly represents? Or Huey Newton of the Black Panthers of which Parker is a self-admitted field lieutenant?

It asked questions about Parker's use of a 50-cent per-student per-semester fee for student government.

The director's office in Washington answered the Indianapolis memo Dec. 16, 1970, and said, "With the changes noted, bureau approval granted for the anonymous mailing to student groups."

of the leaflet prepared by your office.

You should change the caption of this leaflet to read: "The Parker Cop Out - or more aptly, No More Bull."

You are authorized to duplicate sufficient copies of this leaflet on paper obtained commercially. Assure that necessary precautions are taken to protect the identity of the bureau as the source of these leaflets.

In a progress report dated March 2, 1971, the Indianapolis office informed Washington.

It is difficult to evaluate the effects of the leaflet distribution; however, Indianapolis feels strongly that the leaflet added to adverse feelings regarding Parker. At the present time, Parker's position as a student leader on the campus has greatly diminished to the point where he is in no real position to organize or lead.

That memo said Parker's reception on his return from North Vietnam was "far from enthusiastic" and that he had mentioned the leaflet circulated against him.

One of the more significant results of the reaction of the students to Parker and the student government was the decision of the IU board of trustees on Jan. 22, 1971, to abolish the 50-cent mandatory semester fee by students for support of the student government.

Copies of the leaflets attacking Parker were sent to his parents and to IU trustees. Parker told a student gathering that the mailing of the leaflets had a derogatory effect on his character.

The Indianapolis office concluded that it feels that this decision on the part of the trustees (to abolish the 50-cent student fee) deprives the USM free access to funds and lessens their ability to control programs fitting their purpose.

AIMED AT I.U. STUDENT OFFICIAL

FBI Admits Anonymous Leaflet

A secret campaign to discredit the 1970-71 Indiana University student body president, Keith S. Parker, was done by the Indianapolis FBI office in the interest of national security, the present agent-in-charge of the office said last night.

James F. Martin, who retires later this month from the bureau, confirmed that lished reports yesterday that the FBI during the stormy antiwar era in 1970-71 disseminated an anonymous leaflet criticizing Parker, then an admitted Black Panther and the United Student Movement which controlled student government on the Bloomington campus.

INTELLIGENCE Information on Parker and the United Student Movement, said Martin, was turned over to the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence at their request.

Parker, now a medical student at the University of Minnesota, said in April, 1970, after demonstrators marched on the Federal Building here, protesting the use of Federal income taxes to finance the war in Vietnam.

Marching is not enough. America is Babylon. We must dedicate ourselves to resistance here."

THAT SPEECH, his first after being elected president of the student body at I.U., also urged students to enlist in the People's Liberation Army.

Parker, in addition predicted that if my chairman, Bobby Seale (then head of the Black Panthers), gets the electric chair, we'll turn out the lights.

Seale had been indicted on a murder charge by a Federal grand jury. But a petit jury later could not reach a verdict on his guilt or innocence.

PARKER ALSO WAS instrumental in negotiating the People's Peace Treaty at Hanoi between North Vietnamese students and a delegation of American students.

The copyrighted story, which appeared in yesterday's Indianapolis News, said the leaflet distributed on the I.U. campus after Parker's election was drawn up "to take advantage of adverse feelings on the I.U. campus regarding the trip to North Vietnam taken by Parker."

The suggestion for the leaflet, according to a memorandum sent Washington by the Indianapolis FBI office, was made by former agent-in-charge James E. Naegle, now retired. The News said.

MARTIN yesterday said he was happy to see the news media is publishing the correspondence since it explains why this action was considered to be in the best interest of the national security.

A letter sent to Washington Dec. 8, 1970, by the local FBI office described Parker as a field lieutenant in the Black Panther Party.

It further stated: "I

INDIANAPOLIS (UPI) — I feel strongly that this is an excellent time for the bureau to capitalize on feelings that Parker is not serving the student body but is furthering his own gains. It is also felt this is an excellent time to begin a program to disenchant students toward any of the USM, Student Mobilization Committee, or Young Socialist Alliance movements on the campus.

The correspondence said Washington approved distribution of the hadout. It would be mailed anonymously in packets of 25-50 to legitimate student organizations, fraternities, sororities, etc. to insure that the bureau as a source will be fully protected.

It was then approved, distributed and the local FBI later advised Washington the campaign had met with success.

One of the more significant results, said the post-campaign report, was the decision of the I.U. Board of Trustees on Jan. 22, 1971, to abolish a mandatory fee of 50 cents a semester for support of the student government.
